Well, Trump is gone. Biden’s inauguration was uneventful and went off without a hitch. In keeping with his promises, Biden has signed on day one over a dozen executive orders, many related to Covid and others to overturn Trump’s.

> 1. Executive order on mask/coronavirus
> 2. Executive order on WHO
> 3. Executive order on COVID-19 response
> 4. Executive order on nationwide moratorium
> 5. Executive order on student loan
> 6. Executive order on Paris climate accord
> 7. Executive order on Keystone XL pipeline
> 8. Executive order on racial equity
> 9. Executive order on gender equity
> 10. Executive order on census
> 11. Executive order on immigration
> 12. Executive order on some passport holders
> 13. Executive order on immigration enforcement
> 14. Executive order on border wall
> 15. Executive order on deportation
> 16. Executive order on ethics
> 17. Executive order on regulation

Many of the ones that regard gender, immigration or race are basic neoliberal claptrap, most of which will not effective people's lives. The other stuff regarding Covid, the climate and regulations are very good. Recall that Biden announced his run for president in 2020, saying he decided so because of the White Supremacist Terrorism™ at Charlottesville. Now clearly he didn't mean that, as he has run for president many times and has been accused by the far left of empowering White Supremacy with the crime bill for example. But in his inaugural address, he mentioned a vow to defeat White Supremacy and political extremism. I doubt that this will mean anything other than symbology and many some mandatory White guilt sessions for federal workers, all of which happened and became mainstreamed under Trump, by the way.
